

5 Policies the BNP don't want you to know about.

Whenever they've gotten into power, the BNP have shown themselves to be incompetent, too focused on their intolerance, bigotry and extremist ideology to care about the problems of ordinary Britons. Look at the small print, and you can really see the harsh, authoritarian country the BNP wish to create.

Increase your shopping bills by £3,300

The BNP's wants to introduce tariffs and quotas that would make life more expensive (costing up to £3,300 a year), devastate Britain's export trade and lead to long waiting lists for foreign electronics, clothes and medicines.

Unleash assault rifles on our streets

The BNP plans to bring back national service, the death penalty, corporal punishment in our schools and make it a legal requirement for all adults to own an assault rifle.

Abolish Tescos, Primark and Ikea

The BNP would abolish supermarkets, making life vastly most expensive for ordinary British families. Their protectionist policies would cause leading British companies to flee to Zurich or Singapore, costing millions of jobs.

Institute a Big Brother society

The BNP plans to abolish the PCC, indoctrinate our children through a new Section 28 prescription against racial tolerance and censor popular TV shows such as Eastenders or Coronation Street.

Cut us off from the world

The BNP would take us out of NATO, the UN and the EU. They'd end all foreign aid, destroy our international reputation, and make us the laughing stock of the world.

This man wants to raise your taxes, put guns on your streets and divide
your community.

British people believe in fair play, decency and giving everyone a chance.

Vote for Britain, not the BNP.
